

Research Center "Biotechnology"

Main tasks:

1. The main objectives of the organization and implementation of scientific research work on the long-term and current plan of the Atyrau University named after H. Dosmukhamedov.
2. Conducting fundamental and applied scientific research in biology, biotechnology, ecology.
3. Training of highly qualified personnel in biology: Involvement of undergraduates and students in the conduct of scientific work.

Main functions

1. Organization and conduct of research work in the biological sciences.
2. In accordance with the latest international achievement, determine the dominant direction in the republic and in the region.
3. Conducting fundamental and applied scientific research in the dominant areas of science and technology;
4. Participation in international, state, regional scientific projects and programs in the areas of biology and biotechnology.
5. Joint organization of international and republican advanced training of scientific personnel.
6. By permission on the basis of official bodies (license) of the Republic of Kazakhstan to conduct scientific research.

